Below the title are two small ancient Egyptian inscriptions. A navigation bar at the top includes links for "neues Fachwörterbuch", "Papyrus-Sammlungen", and "Papyrus-Portal". On the left side, there is a sidebar with the text "Programmed by Universität Leipzig URZ © 2007 - 2016". The main content area is titled "Organa Papyrologica" and describes the site as a collection of digital tools for papyrology. It mentions the "neues Fachwörterbuch", the "Papyrus-Portal", and other collections from various institutions. Organa Papyrologica

Auf dieser Seite sind alle in Leipzig betreuten papyrologischen digitalen Hilfsmittel versammelt. Das ist das Papyrusportal, das die in Deutschland und in den Nachbarländern digitalisierten papyrologischen Datenbanken der einzelnen Sammlungen durchsucht und die Ergebnisse einheitlich anzeigt. Dazu gehört auch das Papyrus-Projekt Halle-Jena-Leipzig. Ebenfalls werden die Daten der Sammlungen von Basel, Bremen, Erlangen, Köln, Marburg, Würzburg sowie Gießen bereit gestellt.

Neu hinzu gekommen ist das digitale mehrsprachige Online Wörterbuch zum Fachwortschatz der Verwaltungssprache des griechisch-römisch-byzantinischen Ägypten (kurz neues Fachwörterbuch). Es ersetzt, aktualisiert und erweitert das 100 Jahre alte Lexikon von Friedrich Preisigke, Fachwörter des öffentlichen Verwaltungsdienstes Ägyptens: in den griechischen Papyrusurkunden der ptolemäisch-römischen Zeit, Göttingen 1915.

Ziel dieser Seite Organa Papyrologica ist es, ein internationales Portal zu papyrologischen Online-Tools zu schaffen, gemäß dem Motto: nomen est omen.

Checklist of Editions of Greek, Latin, Demotic, and Coptic Papyri, Ostraca, and Tablets

Founding Editors: John F. Oates and William H. Willis

This new instance of the Checklist is a work in progress. Most of the data already supersede those of the previous site. Previous print and online editions were curated by a board of Editors, founded by the late Professors John F. Oates and William H. Willis. This latest carries forward the spirit of openness and collaboration that they championed. Abbreviations are arrived at after discussion by a variety of stakeholders, including Joshua D. Sosin (Duke), Rodney Ast (Heidelberg), Roger S. Bagnall (NYU), James M.S. Cowey (Heidelberg), Mark Depauw (Leuven), Alain Delattre (Brussels), Robert Maxwell (BYU), Paul Heilporn (Strasbourg), volume editors, and others, sometimes including the wider papyrological community (via papylst). The quickest way to initiate discussion of updates and abbreviations is to write the papylst, or any one of the individuals named above. Editors are strongly urged to let us know when new volumes are published.
